A SPECIAL ISSUE FEATURING OUR OUTSTANDING WOMEN PROFESSIONALS

About This Issue

The women workforce at NERLDC is incredibly diverse and dynamic. They play a pivotal role in managing the grid as real-time operators, while others specialize in system protection and system studies. Many are involved in contractual negotiations, while others skillfully navigate the complexities of the electricity market. Some focus on addressing employee issues, while others dedicate themselves to the welfare of both employees and stakeholders. Our women are present in every aspect of our operations, contributing their expertise and bringing fresh perspectives to our work culture. They continuously initiate innovative ideas and proactively take on responsibilities. Their contributions shine in various forums and situations, making NERLDC proud.

In this special issue, we pay tribute to all the remarkable women employees of NERLDC, recognizing their dedication, hard work, and invaluable contributions in celebration of International Women's Day 2025.
